sold Trustees nare inbefore nemed or their successors, who shall be their successors in the offices of said Bank as above designated, but who sold act as individuals, shall continue to hold the fallis Farm as he sinafter mentioned, and shall make distribution of all of the corpus of said trust fund and estate, and of any accrued income, after the death of my wife, as follows:

- (a) To my sister, Plorence Hundred, $2500), the sum of Trenty-five Hundred Dollars ($2500), bsolutely, or in the event of her death 66 her issue.
- (b) To my brother, John S. Renn, the sum of Tachty-five dundred Dollars ($9500), absolutely, or in the event of his death, to his issue.
- (c) To my sister, May Remaburg, Twenty-five Hundred Dollars ($2500), absolutely, or in the event of her death, to her issue.
- (d) To my brother, Ass B. Henn, the sum of The hity-five Mundred Dollars ($2500), absolutely, or in the event of his death, to his issue.
- the sum of Thenty-five Hundred Dollars ($2500), absolutely, or in the event of his douth without insue, then to revert to my estate, and become part of the residue the sof, to be discosed of as here-inster sentioned.
- (f) To my sister-in-lew, Darah Molesworth, the sum of Thenty-five Hundred Dollars ($2500), absolutely, or in the event of her death, to her issue.
- (g) To my brother-in-law, Guy Finleeger, the sum of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars ($2500) absolutely, or in the event of his death, to his issue.
- Thousand Dollars ($25,000), and to pay the not income arising therefrom to my sister-in-law, Hermie ditherine Philosope, as long as sas remains unmarried; in the event of hir ma misse, said provision for her to couse to be effective, and than sae shall receive Tenty-five munified Dollars ($2500) absolutely and no more.